

Birthstone

CHART & MEANINGS

Wondering what your birthstone represents? Each month has a traditional birthstone associated with its own unique color, symbolism, and meaning. Take a look at the chart below to find your birthstone and learn more about the qualities and traditions commonly associated with it.

January

GARNET

Traditionally symbolizes protection, friendship, trust, and strength.

February

AMETHYST

Traditionally symbolizes peace, calm, clarity, and protection.

March

AQUAMARINE

Traditionally symbolizes courage, tranquility, happiness, and clarity.

April

DIAMOND

Traditionally symbolizes love, strength, purity, and commitment.

May

EMERALD

Traditionally symbolizes love, rebirth, growth, and good fortune.

June

PEARL

Traditionally symbolizes purity, wisdom, innocence, and serenity.

July

RUBY

Traditionally symbolizes passion, love, courage, and vitality.

August

PERIDOT

Traditionally symbolizes happiness, prosperity, protection, and renewal.

September

SAPPHIRE

Traditionally symbolizes wisdom, loyalty, sincerity, and inner peace.

October

OPAL

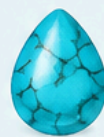

Traditionally symbolizes hope, creativity, imagination, and inspiration.

November

CITRINE

Traditionally symbolizes happiness, abundance, optimism, and prosperity.

December

TURQUOISE

Traditionally symbolizes protection, healing, good fortune, and friendship.

Please note: Birthstone meanings are traditional symbolism and folklore, not scientifically proven properties.
shopwithmemama.com

